

WHATEVER YOUR MAJOR...

...YOU CAN MAKE A MAJOR DIFFERENCE IN JEWISH EDUCATION!

- ARE YOU ABOUT TO EMBARK ON YOUR FIRST TEACHING VENTURE IN A HEBREW OR RELIGIOUS SCHOOL?
- ARE YOU BEGINNING YOUR FIRST YEAR AS A TEACHER IN A JEWISH DAY SCHOOL?
- HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT ABOUT GETTING INVOLVED IN JEWISH EDUCATION?
- ARE YOU LOOKING FOR NEW STRATEGIES AND SKILLS FOR CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT AND PLANNING?

IF SO, THEN THIS IS THE COURSE FOR YOU!

SHACHAR: JEWISH ED. 101 is a practical guide to teaching in a classroom situation. Offered through the Jewish Teacher Institute, this 32-hour class (16 sessions) will help you to become the most effective teacher that you can be. The focus will be on taking control of your classroom, general lesson and unit design, classroom management, and promoting a positive and cooperative environment in the classroom. Facilitated by an experienced teacher, Barak Naveh, this course is designed to deal with the broad topic of "effective teaching" in general, and the particular challenges of Jewish education. Skills you learn in this class will enhance your professional performance in all domains of life, no matter what career path you choose!

THURSDAYS, 7:00 – 9:00 P.M.

October 7, 14, 21, 28, November 4, 11, 18 and December 2

*The Edward and Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center of Pittsburgh
4607 Forbes Avenue (near the corner of Forbes Avenue & Craig Street)*

Please Note: The second part of this 16-session course will begin in January 2011.

There is a $25 Registration Fee per semester for this course.

Participants who successfully complete this course in its entirety (32 hours) will be eligible to receive a $250 stipend from the Agency for Jewish Learning.
