

And if not now,

WHEN?"

Pittsburgh Diller Teen Fellows September 2010 to October 2011

Application Deadline	May 21, 2010
Candidate Interviews	May 23 – June 6, 2010
Summer Seminar in Israel	TBA

Fee for Participation:

This program is generously funded by The Helen Diller Family Foundation, The Fine Foundation and the United Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh. Each Fellow receives a $7,000 subsidy resulting in a cost of $2,000 to the participant. Additional financial aid is available.

How to Apply:

Applications can be found online at www.ajlpittsburgh.org/Diller. Letters of Recommendation and personal interviews will be required for all Diller Teen Fellow applicants.

Are You Ready?

PITTSBURGH
DILLER TEEN FELLOWS

diller דיילר

A Program for High School Sophomores and Juniors Who Seek To Explore Their Jewish Identity, Develop Leadership Skills, and Expand Their Knowledge

United Jewish Federation

UJF

AJL
Agency for Jewish Learning

JCC
pggh

“If I am not for myself,
who is for me?”

20 Pittsburgh and 20 Israeli Fellows will engage, separately and cooperatively, with four themes:

Jewish Identity exploring our commitment to Jewish values, tradition, memory, faith, culture, connection with Israel and a sense of shared destiny.

Tikkun Olam encouraging participants to act according to a sense of communal responsibility in Pittsburgh, Israel and globally.

Leadership developing the skills and knowledge necessary to effectively impact and inspire others.

Community instilling a deep connection between Pittsburgh Jewish teenagers, our counterparts in Israel and other Jewish communities around the world.

The Program

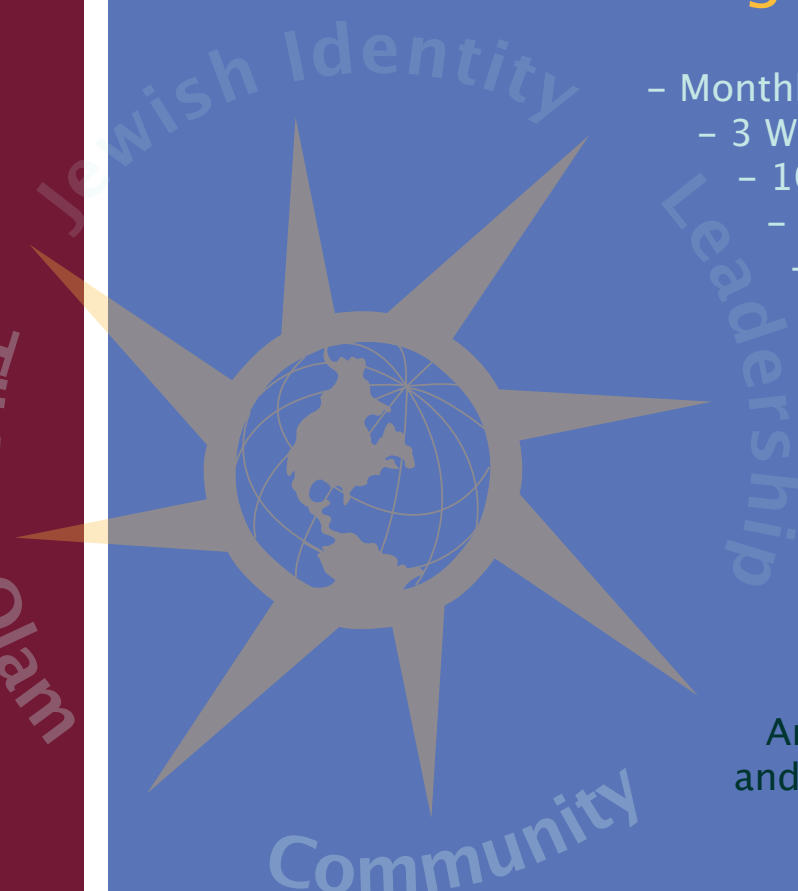

- Monthly Sunday Workshops
- 3 Weekend Retreats
- 10 Days Hosting an Israeli Teen
- 3 Week Summer Seminar in Israel
- Community Service Projects

Are you ready to...
Participate in an International Teen Congress?

Join a select group of peers from Israel and around the world for an opportunity of a lifetime?

Are you ready to find your passion and put it to work?

Tikkun Olam

“If only for myself,

what am I?”