

Sunday Mornings at Chatham University:

Sunday 9:00-9:55am

ISR 220
Sunday
8-12th Grade

Great Israelis Everyone Should Know
9:00-9:55am

Leehee Kanne
Chatham University
Credit: 1

In this class students will learn about many of the important Israeli figures from the time of the birth of the state of Israel to today. This will include great political figures as well as famous musicians and movie stars. Learn about who they are, how they made key choices in Israel's history and why this is important to us today.

JAC140
Sunday
8-12th Grade

Torah Yoga
9:00-9:55am

Nitsa Ford
Chatham University
Credits: 2

Torah Yoga offers an experience of Jewish Wisdom through Iyengar yoga instruction together with the study of traditional and mystical Jewish texts. Our Yoga Torah class will reward you with physical relaxation and mental focus while contemplating Jewish wisdom from our Sages.

JAC225
Sunday
9-12th Grade

Jewish History Goes to the Movies
9:00-9:55am

Barak Naveh
Chatham University
Credits: 2

Come learn Jewish history as we view a variety of films. We will look at the way film makers depict Jewish events in history and compare them to what historians say about the same events.

JSP 200
Sunday
8-12th Grade

The Thinking Teenager's Guide to Life
9:00-9:55am

Rabbi Ari Goldberg
Chatham University
Credit: 1

This course will explore contemporary issues such as: the self, substance abuse, friendship, intolerance, Israel, and Tikkun Olam- repairing the world- through the lens of traditional Jewish text. *Since the topics for this course continue to change, teens can enroll in this course multiple semesters and years.

JSP 105
Sunday
8-12th Grade

Parashat Hashavuah
9:00-9:55am

Steve Kroser
Chatham University
Credit: 1

This class will use the Torah reading of the week as a springboard for discussion about how the week's Torah portion relates to our lives and our world.

Sunday 10:05-11:00am

ISR 225
Sunday
8-12th Grade

Israeli Military
10:05-11:00

Steve Kroser
Chatham University
Credit: 1

From the Biblical story of Joshua to the modern Israeli Defense Forces, use the internet, books, the Bible, music, personal experience and other sources to explore the connections Jews have had with the military.

ISR 280
Sunday
8-12th Grade

Israeli Filmmakers (Continued)
10:05-11:00am

Leehee Kanne
Chatham University
Credit: 1

This course will focus on emerging Israeli filmmakers and feature both short and feature length movies made by young filmmakers, which deal with everyday life in Israel from various angles. Students will study both the technique and the content of these emerging new artists. *This course is open to new students as well as those who were enrolled first semester.

JAC201
Sunday
8-12th Grade

Soul Food: A Non-Cooking Cooking Class
10:05-11:00am

Shulamis Rothman
Chatham University
Credit: 1

Eat your way through the semester as you learn how to make traditional Jewish dishes that nourish your body and soul. In this course students will “cook” dishes that do not need cooking or dishes to bring home to be put in the oven at home while learning about “What makes food Jewish?”

JSP 220
Sunday
8-12th Grade

American Jewish History
10:05-11:00am

Barak Naveh
Chatham University
Credit: 2

The trials and tribulations of Jews in America are explored in this course as students engage in lively discussions on topics such as immigration, discrimination, responses to anti-Semitism, culture retention, assimilation and adaptation, politics, and polarity. This class will highlight those Jews who have made significant contributions to the development of American society through avenues of business, politics, education and religion.

Sunday 11:10-12:05pm

ISR 201
Sunday
9-12th Grade

Israel and Holocaust
11:10-12:05pm

Leehee Kanne
Chatham University
Credit: 1

In this class we will look into the relationship the state of Israel and its people have with the Holocaust, its perpetrators and its survivors- during it, right after and dealing with the aftermath. We will explore both works of fiction and documentaries, analyze texts, and listen to testimonials regarding survivors and their relationship with Israel.

JAC280
Sunday
9-12th Grade

Jewish Art in Our Time
11:10-12:05pm

Melissa Hiller
Chatham University
Credit: 2

Delving into the wide scope of Jewish art and artists today, this class combines study, hands-on work and field trips to learn about the Jewish art world today.

JSP 100
Sunday
8th Grade

8th Grade Core
11:10-12:05pm

Steve Kroser
Chatham University
Credit: 2

Starting with the core question "What does it meant to be Jewish?", this class will explore the many ways others have answered this question and will provide tools for students to begin to answer the question for themselves.

JSP 130
Sunday
9-12th Grade

Jewish Current Events
11:10-12:05pm

Barak Naveh
Chatham University
Credit: 2

Students will learn about, discuss and debate Jewish current events. Students will be encouraged to participate in a variety of activities that deal with issues relevant to their lives. This class will be a fun and interesting opportunity to learn about what is currently going on in the world and how it relates to us as Jews!

SLL 300
Sunday
10th and 11th Grade

Jewish Civics Initiative
11:10-12:05pm

Amy Dicker
Chatham University
Credit: 2

Blend Jewish service learning, political activism and leadership in this incredible program. In addition to weekly sessions, students participate in a four-day seminar in Washington, DC and plan a service learning project in Pittsburgh. This is a full-year course.